What is Web 2.0 and how will it change the face of Library Instruction?

Join CCLI at its Spring 2007 Workshop as we explore the impact of emerging web technologies on Instructional activities.

Our speakers represent public and academic perspectives on utilizing and coping with a rapidly evolving instructional environment.

Learning 1.0 in a Web 2.0 World: Engaging Students, Classrooms, and Libraries

David Silver is an Assistant Professor of Media Studies and the director of the Resource Center for Cyberculture Studies at the University of San Francisco.

Research Instruction in a Web 2.0 World

Anne-Marie Deitering is the Undergraduate Services Librarian at Oregon State University.

Instruction On Demand: Shifting Time and Space

Michele Mizejewski is the Electronic Services Librarian at the Redwood City Public Library.

Registration

The cost of the workshop is $40 for those who register by April 15. If space is still available, you may register after April 15 for $45. Buffet Lunch and morning refreshments are included in the registration fee. Please print out this form on legal-sized paper and mail with your check, payable to CCLI, to:
