

How to determine whether to use normal or t-distribution

