

Chapter 6 Quiz Study Guide

PSYC 356

After reading the chapter, indicate whether these statements are true or false.

1. Research studies show that comprehensive sex education encourages children to engage in sexual behavior. (True / False)
2. Recent research has demonstrated that all forms of sexuality education are equally effective and significantly reduce risky teenage behavior. (True / False)
3. Once is enough reflects the "inoculation" theory of sex education. (True / False)
4. Abstinence only sex education programs have been shown to delay sexual intercourse, improve contraceptive use, and/or prevent teenage pregnancy. (True / False)
5. The main way that children learn about sexuality from their parents is by observing their parent's behavior. (True / False)
6. Sex play in children usually occurs with members of the same sex. (True / False)
7. Gender-role learning begins in puberty. (True / False)
8. Young children who demonstrate sexual curiosity with other same-sex children will most likely identify later in life as gay or lesbian. (True / False)
9. If a young child is caught touching himself it is best to reprimand that child immediately. (True / False)
10. The first evidence of sexual arousal does not occur until adolescence. (True / False)
11. Adolescents tend to underestimate the percentage of their sexually active peers who used a condom during their last intercourse. (True / False)
12. Babies born to teenage mothers are more likely to have low birth weight than those born to adult aged women. (True / False)
13. Changes in hormonal levels will trigger the development of secondary sex characteristics in puberty. (True / False)
14. A positive outcome of masturbation is that it gives us an opportunity to learn about our own sexual functioning. (True / False)
15. The onset of puberty in boys is generally about 2 years later than girls. (True / False)
16. Theories suggesting biological influences on sexual orientation have been disproven. (True / False)
17. The "coming out" process for gays and lesbians is correlated with improved self-esteem and feelings of self worth. (True / False)