

Chapter 7 Quiz Study Guide

PSYC 356

---

After reading the chapter, indicate whether these statements are true or false.

1. A stereotype about bisexuals is that they are confused about their sexual identities. (True / False)
2. Gay men and lesbians can change their sexual orientation if they desire to do so. (True / False)
3. Victor has dated women for the last 10 years but has had two sexual encounters with men. Victor most likely identifies as bisexual. (True / False)
4. The postponement of marriage until later in life has contributed to the increasing acceptability of non-marital sex. (True / False)
5. Oxytocin produces a feeling of connectedness and bonding, known as "the cuddle hormone." (True / False)
6. America's obsession with youth and sexuality makes many people believe that sexuality in older men and women is inappropriate. (True / False)
7. The majority of Americans remain sexually active into their 70s. (True / False)
8. Most older adults express high levels of satisfaction and well-being. (True / False)
9. Cohabiting relationships tend to be more egalitarian than married partners living together. (True / False)
10. Married individuals express greater satisfaction with their sexual relationships than either singles or persons engaged in extramarital relationships. (True / False)
11. Most women enter menopause around age 65. (True / False)
12. Menopause is best defined as the onset of menstrual irregularities in late adulthood. (True / False)
13. Accepting the biological aging process is a developmental milestone experienced during middle adulthood. (True / False)
14. Making fertility/childbearing decisions is a developmental milestone that occurs during young adulthood. (True / False)