

Chapter 11 Objectives;

PSYC 356

1. Describe 4 ways in which men can take contraceptive responsibility.
2. Discuss obstacles to practicing safe sex, including perceptions and realities.
3. Differentiate contraceptives and birth control.
4. Identify three things one must know to use birth control responsibly.
5. Differentiate perfect use and typical use.
6. Describe the effectiveness, advantages, and disadvantages of the different hormonal contraceptives (oral, vaginal ring, patch, implant, injectables).
7. Describe the effectiveness, advantages, and disadvantages of the different barrier methods of contraceptives (condom, female condom, diaphragm, cervical cap, sponge).
8. Discuss the advantages and disadvantages to using spermicides.
9. Explain the fertility awareness based methods of birth control, their advantages, and disadvantages.
10. Discuss the IUD as a method of birth control, its advantages, and disadvantages.
11. Discuss the various forms of male and female sterilization as a method of birth control, their advantages, and disadvantages.
12. Discuss emergency contraception as a method of birth control, its advantages, and disadvantages.
13. Identify the methods involved in medical and surgical abortion.
14. Discuss both sides of the abortion debate.

Lecture and Supplemental Material

15. Evaluate the status of abortion in the United States, looking at contemporary attitudes and legislative actions that affect access to legalized abortion.
16. Describe contemporary restrictions on abortion (e.g. counseling, waiting periods, gestational bans, mandatory ultrasounds, and parental consent laws)