

Chapter 15 Objectives

PSYC 356

---

1. Differentiate the terms incidence and prevalence.
2. Explain why sexually transmitted infections are known as the “hidden epidemic.”
3. Discuss infection disparities by gender, age, and race/ethnicity.
4. Explain the behavioral, social, and biological risk factors that contribute to the spread of STIs.
5. Identify the consequences of sexually transmitted infections.
6. Differentiate between a bacterial, viral, and ectoparasitic infections.
7. Identify the symptoms, transmission modes, and treatments for chlamydia, gonorrhea, and syphilis.
8. Summarize the implications of the Tuskegee Syphilis Study.
9. Identify the symptoms, transmission modes, and treatments for HIV, genital herpes, HPV, and hepatitis.
10. Contrast the causes, effects, and treatments for bacterial vaginosis, genital candidiasis, and trichomoniasis.
11. Identify the symptoms, transmission modes, and treatments for scabies and pubic lice.
12. Discuss the risk factors, symptoms, and effects of pelvic inflammatory disease, cervicitis, and cystitis.
13. Identify 9 health-promoting behaviors to avoid contracting an STI.
14. Identify 3 health-promoting behaviors to prevent others from contracting an STI.