

Chapter 17 Objectives

---

PSYC 356

1. Differentiate two types of sexual harassment.
2. Identify three criteria for determining if sexual harassment has occurred.
3. Identify other factors that the EEOC considers when determining if sexual harassment has occurred.
4. Identify the most frequently reported types of sexual harassment experienced by college students.
5. Investigate gender differences in sexual harassment in schools, colleges, and the workplace.
6. Explain three examples of heterosexual bias.
7. Differentiate heterosexual bias from homophobia.
8. Describe the effects of heterosexual bias on LGBT persons.
9. Differentiate sexual aggression, sexual coercion, and sexual assault.
10. Discuss the issue of consent as it relates to rape.
11. Identify 6 types of drugs that are used to commit date/acquaintance rape.
12. Identify the characteristics of a date-rapist.
13. Discuss factors that contribute to acquaintance, stranger, marital, gang, and statutory rape.
14. Discuss the issues involved in understanding male rape.
15. Describe three motivations for rape
16. Discuss the aftermath of rape, including Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and Rape Trauma Syndrome (RTS).
17. Differentiate pedophilic versus non-pedophilic child sexual abuse.
18. Identify factors that put children at risk for sexual abuse.
19. Describe the initial and long-term behavioral, cognitive, and emotional effects of child sexual abuse.

WEAVE Objectives

20. Describe contemporary attitudes toward LGBT persons.
21. Differentiate 5 different types of abuse included in WEAVE's definition of domestic violence.
22. Describe the cycle of domestic violence.
23. Describe offenses that are prosecutable under the umbrella term of sexual assault.
24. Discuss the issue of consent as it relates to sexual assault.
25. Explain why sexual assault is difficult to prosecute.